General Information

Audience Release

This Audience Release is between a producer and an individual who willingly agrees to participate in a program. This release contains the details regarding the program including the type (i.e., movie, game show or music video) and the participation expected of the audience. It also sets forth the understanding that audience participant's image may be broadcast for viewing by the general public and that audience member has no rights to the recordings or images.

It is important that this audience participation release be clearly set out in writing. A written Audience Release will prove invaluable in the event there is miscommunication or misunderstandings regarding audience member's rights to the program.
