General Information

Broadcast Release

This Broadcast Release is between an artist (also known as releasor) and a broadcaster who will televise a program or event featuring the artist. This release contains details regarding the arrangement including the title of the program or event, broadcast medium and broadcaster's rights to promote and advertise the program. It also sets forth that the artist owns all copyrights in the program.

It is imperative that this business arrangement be clearly set out in writing. If there are disagreements or misunderstandings between the parties, a well-written Broadcast Release will prove beneficial as it sets out the specific terms of the business arrangement.
